Private Walks Planning Guide
Planning a Private Wayfarers Vacation is Easy!

You choose the time, the place and the companions, and we will give you the perfect Wayfarers’ experience. Groups of 8 or more can make any published itinerary a private trip based on published prices.

Here’s how to get started:

Step 1 > Choose a Destination
We’ve got walking itineraries to so many destinations, in our brochure and in our vault. Tell us where you want to go and we’ll help pick just the right trip.

Step 2 > Select your Dates
The calendar fills quickly. It’s best to let us know your dates with as much advance notice as possible...and have back-up dates, just in case. Of course, we’ll always do our best whenever you start planning your Walk.
Let’s Plan your Walk
You can turn any of our published itineraries into a private walk; just select the Walk and choose your own dates. We can also customize your Walk. We’ll adjust any itinerary, the level of difficulty, add special interest events, celebrations, you name it. We want to help you make it special, and with our travel experts and in-house travel agency, there isn’t much we can’t do.

Add People
We’ll make the planning and payment process as easy as possible. Rely on us to send each traveler their own custom itinerary and forms. Payment can be made by the trip organizer or invoiced separately. It’s your choice.

Get ready to Enjoy!
We’ll make sure all the arrangements are confirmed and made to your liking. If you’ve walked with The Wayfarers before, you know our Walk Leaders and Managers are the best in the business. You can’t help but enjoy!

Pentillie Castle
Imagine the Thrill of Having Your Own English Castle

Live like lords and ladies for six sumptuous nights at Pentillie, reserved exclusively for The Wayfarers.

The elegantly restored Pentillie Castle (built 1698) on the banks of the Tamar River (which forms the border between Devon and Cornwall) provides a springboard for visiting the pick of the best features in both counties. The week encompasses a tour of historic Plymouth (Pilgrim Fathers, Spanish Armada), coastal walking, wild walking on atmospheric Dartmoor (home of the Hound of the Baskervilles) and a visit to a former home of Sir Francis Drake.
New Zealand - A group of 9 well-traveled friends
Sadly, we have finished our walking, which exceeded all expectations.
Geoff and Colin were amazing and the walking was great.
This has been a trip of a lifetime!

Etruscan Hilltop Towns - A family of 14; three generations
Our family are all very active and I think they were pleasantly exhilarated with the number of kilometers covered.
We simply cannot write enough kudos for the walk, the scenery, the lack, thank God of tourist-infested landscapes, the food, and most of all, the special outstanding care of Alessandro and Lesley.
We appreciated spending all the nights in one location.....that was huge!

Pentillie Castle - A family of 18; three generations
Pretty damn perfect!
We were staying in wonderful places and saw gorgeous scenery. How do you beat that?!

Welsh Coast - A family of 7 siblings, cousins, and spouses
Such high quality in every aspect.
We were a family and really liked some meals with leaders and some without.
Talented and personable guide, sensitive to the needs of a family group. Walk leader was skilled and charming.

Italian Lakes - A family of 14; three generations
My family all did the walks! Except me, I’m too old!
Don’t worry. We’ve done this before…

We are going to help you plan a great vacation. Here are some of the questions you’ll want to think about as you plan your trip.

1. Which destination do you have in mind?
2. What dates do you have in mind?
3. Do you have a Wayfarers itinerary in mind?
4. How much walking do you want to do?
5. Will the group include non-walkers?
6. What is the general age range of the group?
7. What activities would you like to do most when not walking?
8. How easy/difficult do you want the Walk to be?
9. Will multiple hotel changes be OK? Or do you prefer walking from one place?
10. Are you celebrating a special occasion?
